THE CANADIAN TRADE WITH ORIENTAL COUNTRIES

Is Growing Greater Due to Large Extent to Feeling Against United States as Result of Restrictive Immigration Policy Referring to Chinese and Japanese.

Toronto, April 7.—W. C. Barrett, representative in the Orient of the Bute-field and Fraser Shipping company, of England, is in the city, having come direct from Liverpool. He leaves for Vancouver on Monday. Mr. Barrett has been stationed for seven years in the east with headquarters at Shanghai and Hong Kong. He is returning from a holiday. He chose to return by way of Canada, in order that he might pass through the Northwest to acquire some idea of its possibilities. Greater interest, he says, is being taken in the shipping relations of the Orient with the Pacific Coast, and the desire to acquire Canadian fur and produce is making itself felt both in China and Japan.

Mr. Barrett attributes this to at least two causes, the first being the natural demands of the increased population for many necessary foodstuffs, which are most conveniently obtained in Canada, and second, con-ing to the boycotting of American goods among the Chinese and the Japanese, because of recent straits relations resulting from immigration questions. Especially in Japan is the feeling strong regarding this point, and the result is to curtail importation of articles grown or made in the United States.

Wells-to-do immigrants coming. Mr. Barrett also spoke of the movement from the British Isles to Western Canada. The results of years of advertising, which Canada had received in Europe, were now beginning to make themselves felt, and a large immigration had taken place during the last few years. It would be nothing compared with that of the country from the British Isles to the United States.

Wm. Parks' Evidence. Wm. Parks, laborer, testified that he was at the Queen's hotel on Friday morning about 7 o'clock when he saw George Woods come in, and saw a fight between Woods and a man named Peacock. Woods had a mark on his face, and in reply to an inquiry said that he and George Woods had been fighting. Peacock asked what Woods said, and he said that Woods had said: "I hit George Woods."

Peacock replied: "Let us go down to see if we can do anything for you." The three went down about eight o'clock. Woods told about the fight. Woods told about the fight. Woods told about the fight.

The previous night he had slept with Peacock over the barman's shop across from the Queen's hotel. He usually stayed at the latter place, but this night he and Peacock had been drinking, and Peacock had been drinking, and Peacock had been drinking.

They got up about 6:30 this morning. Peacock was going to work at the isolation hospital. After a drink at the Queen's hotel, they set down to work. Woods did not go to work till eight o'clock. He did not go to work till eight o'clock. He did not go to work till eight o'clock.

Witness thought he referred to his own breakfast, and both walked out. Woods had replied to Woods. Woods had replied to Woods. Woods had replied to Woods.

Dr. Farquharson was next called. He performed an autopsy on April 4 at the Alberta infirmary. He could not say the blow caused instant death, but would cause instant consciousness. Deceased would sink in his tracks at the blow and would be unable to move. As far as his investigation led, there was no other cause of death.

After a blow of this nature deceased might have lived fifteen minutes. The actual cause of death, in his opinion, was the hemorrhage caused by the blow, which caused convulsion of the vital signs.

Dr. Barrett, who sat in the post mortem, corroborated the evidence of Dr. Farquharson, and produced the original notes taken at the time. Death was due to the blow on the head, causing fracture of the skull. The ultimate cause was pressure on the brain caused by the hemorrhage.

MORE SECRET SOCIETIES SUFFER.

Knights of Pythias and Sons of Temperance Now Under the Ban.

Special to The Bulletin. Calgary, April 7.—Further Calverton tonight preached a sermon in which he stated that it is the duty of churches to place certain societies under the ban of the church. Among societies denounced were Knights Pythias and Sons of Temperance, and all secret societies were called upon to stay the church and leave alone.

It is only a short time ago since the Elks and Eagles were placed under the ban, and a sensation is caused here by repeated attacks on secret societies that are not of Catholic origin.

The special committee, composed of Aldermen Manson, Smith and Gervy, to which the gas franchise was referred by council, have held several meetings, and Chairman Manson stated this morning that while there was as yet nothing definite done, there is a prospect of the committee presenting a unanimous report to the council.

The committee will recommend granting an exclusive franchise to the Natural Gas Company, surrounded with all manner and kind of restrictions.

The exclusiveness of the franchise will be for only two years, the company failing to locate gas. In the event of gas being discovered the exclusive part of the franchise will be null and void.

The new committee will recommend granting the franchise to the company, surrounded with all manner and kind of restrictions.

ALFRED JONES DID NOT SEE WITNESS HOUSE STRIKE WOODS. The Sensational Story He Told the Police of Being an Eye Witness of Wood's Murder, is all a Myth—Was the Imagination of Liquor-Bogged Brain—Declares at Inquest That he was not Near Houde's Shack the Entire Day of the Murder.

The Woods murder case is not as near solution as was believed. The witness, Alfred Jones of Stony Plain, who told the police he had seen Victor Houde strike Woods with a bottle, now denies the whole story.

At the adjourned inquest held this afternoon Jones testified that he had been at the Jasper House all afternoon and proving until ten at eleven o'clock. He had not been near the place in which the murder took place. But he had been drinking and imagined the story which he told to the police as actual facts.

The Alliance's General department has been notified of an alleged breach of the act by the railways entering this city and Strathcona. The department has as yet taken no action, and the Alliance is awaiting the outcome of the prosecutions instituted against the railways in Ontario before taking definite action here. The Alliance is awaiting also the arrival in Edmonton of Mr. A. M. Rochester, the western secretary of the Lord's Day Alliance, who will advise the Edmonton branch on what action to take.

The annual meeting of the Edmonton branch of the Alliance will be held at the First Presbyterian Church on Wednesday evening. Addresses will be given by Rev. A. M. McDonald and Rev. C. H. Huestis. The election of officers will also take place.

In every part of the country, and of the very atmosphere is such to drive men, and men must have at least one day in the week in which to rest. The future of our west depends on it."

"I do not think the new act is too strict. It is not dealing with a question of such great moment could be. It is possible this action will be taken for breaches of the act, and we want the support of every right-thinking citizen."

THE EFFORT OF HIS LIFE

Delmas Will Review Every Point in The Thaw Case—Will Take Two Days.

New York, April 7.—When Judge Fitzgerald tomorrow morning finally announces the findings of the commission in London enquiring into the present mental condition of Harry K. Thaw the curtain will rise on the last act of the notorious case.

Delmas, it is said, will ask for an adjournment until two o'clock Monday afternoon. It is known he finds it impossible to make his address to the jury in one day, that he will make his opening tomorrow afternoon to leave him the full day Tuesday in which to conclude his summation.

Will Review Whole Case. In a general way, it is known that Mr. Delmas will cover every point of testimony from first to last. He has been preparing for what he himself terms the greatest effort of his life for more than two weeks. He remained at his home today, putting the finishing touches to his plan.

District Attorney Termon is expected to take three or four hours of testimony from first to last. He has been preparing for what he himself terms the greatest effort of his life for more than two weeks. He remained at his home today, putting the finishing touches to his plan.

There will be then Justice Fitzgerald's charge before the case goes to the jury, which can hardly be later than Thursday unless an unexpected obstacle to the anticipated programme arises. Should the jurors fail to agree they will probably be looked up for the night.

Jurors Have Had Experience. Most of the members of the jury have had previous experience in criminal cases. Three have not in homicide cases before, and eight have been jurors in criminal cases where there is other than murder. Only one man never has been a juror previously. Of the three men who have not on a murder jury one was on a jury that brought in a verdict of acquittal, the second man served in two cases in each of which the verdict was murder in the first degree, and the third was on a jury that brought in a verdict of manslaughter.

They Attended Church. They passed a quiet day in the Thaw reading the papers and writing. He was in unusually good spirits and attended religious services.

Canada we learn of defiance of the law but by certain companies. All these must be carefully prosecuted, and, it persisted in, the law must be vigorously enforced. This is a criminal time in Canada so far as the preservation of the Lord's Day is concerned. Every lover of that day should, on patriotic, moral and religious grounds, exert heartily into the observance of Lord's Day Week.

In a sermon in McDougall Methodist Church last Sunday evening, Rev. Mr. Huestis said that "the future of the people who live in Canada, and particularly in this great west of ours, depends upon the keeping inviolate this one day in seven for rest. At this second day men are dropping through nervous prostration, the stimulus of the country, and of the very atmosphere is such to drive men, and men must have at least one day in the week in which to rest. The future of our west depends on it."

THE EDMONTON BULLETIN, MONDAY, APRIL 3, 1907.

STRATHCONA

STREET RAILWAY FOR STRATHCONA

Granting of a Franchise to Edmonton Very Favorably Considered Optional.

There is a strong probability that Strathcona will this summer be connected with Edmonton by a street car line. This may be the outcome of the recent surveys by the Engineering Department of the City of Edmonton, which have been in progress for the past few weeks. As a result of these surveys, it has been found that the building of the proposed line will be a much easier piece of work than at first supposed, the maximum grade being only 0.7 per cent, instead of about ten as the first calculations predicted.

Another factor in the building of the proposed line is the friendly feeling at present existing between the two cities, and the agreement arrived at with reference to the new automobile telephone system.

A charter is now held by the Strathcona Street Railway Co., granted to the city by the legislative council of 1906, but the company have not applied for a franchise, and as yet have taken no steps to construct their tramway.

Saturday afternoon The Bulletin representative waited upon a number of prominent Strathconians to ascertain their views on the question of allowing Edmonton to lay their street railway in the southern city.

The opinion generally was in favor of granting a franchise of the proposed line was for the purpose of serving the city as a whole, but if only to beat out the buses from the C. P. R. station to the capital, there was decided opposition to permitting the Edmonton people to extend their lines here.

It is generally understood, however, that the Edmonton commissioners and council would consider favorably building the line along Whyte avenue to the terminus of the proposed high level bridge to make the belt line on the completion of that structure. This proposition was taken under consideration by the Strathcona council last night after the regular session. It was decided to extend a call to Rev. Mr. Bowen, of Dauphin, Man., to become pastor of the church.

INSANE INDIAN FOR BRANDON.
An insane Indian from Fort Chipewyan was taken south yesterday to Brandon in charge of a mounted police officer. The Indian was clad in all his war paint and blankets, and frequently gave evidence of being at times very violent. He was brought to Edmonton from the north on Saturday.

FITTING UP THE RINK.
The waiting rooms of the Strathcona rink are being fitted up to furnish temporary accommodation to the people who are arriving daily at the southern city. A number of people have already fitted up rooms, and one stockkeeper on Whyte avenue has accommodated nine persons over his store.

BAPTISTS CALL A PASTOR.
At a meeting of the Strathcona Baptist church last night after the regular service, it was decided to extend a call to Rev. Mr. Bowen, of Dauphin, Man., to become pastor of the church.

LOCALS.
The pulpit of Knox Presbyterian church was occupied yesterday morning by Rev. Mr. Jeffrey, of Edmonton.

The regular monthly meeting of the W.C.T.U. will be held Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Thos. Richards.

A number of candidates were confirmed at Holy Trinity church last evening by Bishop Finkham, of Calgary. His Lordship preached at Colchester in the morning.

A girl named A. Clifton died suddenly at the immigration hall on Saturday from heart failure. She was twenty years of age, and had arrived from England a few days previously with her father, mother, two brothers and a sister.

FROM DAY TO DAY

THE CANADIAN SONG SPARROW.

From the leafy maple ridge,
From the thicket of the cedar,
From the alders by the river,
From the bending willow branches,
From the hollows and the hillside,
Through the lone Canadian forest,
Comes the melody of song,
Oh repeated, never changing—
"All is vanity—vanity—vanity."

Where the farmer ploughs his furrow,
Flowing sweet with hope of harvest,
In the early field of clover,
Comes the little brown-tailed singer,
Fitting in and out of bushes,
Hiding well behind the fence,
Piping forth his song of sadness—
"Pooh—hu—manity—manity—manity."

J. D. Edgar.

PRESENTATION AT THE ENGLISH COURT.

The interest taken by England in Canada and Canadian people is freely evidenced in a recent circular of information concerning the presentation of colonial ladies at King Edward's court. Evidently it is expected that a number of ladies will accompany their husbands to the colonial conference this year.

The circular, which was sent by the Colonial Office to the Governor General, states that this season such presentations will be made by the Countess of Crew, acting on behalf of the Countess of Elgin, whose health will not permit her to attend court.

Ladies who are officially presented must be the wives or daughters of persons who have either held appointments of high rank in the public service of a colony, or who, though not belonging to the public service, are members of legislative bodies, or otherwise possess the requisite social standing in a colony, and who really belong to, and are usually resident in, a colony.

Ladies belonging to colonies which are represented in this country by High Commissioners or agents-general should make their applications to be presented by the Countess of Crew through the High Commissioner or Agent-General representing their own colony, who should notify them with their own recommendations to the Private Secretary, Colonial Office. The application must contain the full name of the lady and social position of the husband of the applicant, or if she has no husband, her position, and that, to the knowledge of the High Commissioner or Agent-General, the lady is in every respect eligible for presentation to their Majesties.

THE NECESSITY OF COOKING LESSONS.

This is all agreeable to a remark made a couple of days ago by an Edmonton nation to the effect that even young girls here in Edmonton had so many places of social gaiety and outdoor sport that the majority of them were growing up with little regular knowledge of cooking, and a deficient knowledge of cooking, of course, is a disadvantage. It is a fact that the majority of the young women of this city are not so well equipped with the knowledge of the kitchen as they should be. A man's wife has been well put recently in a letter to "Marion Harland," the charming old southern gentlewoman, whose cook-books and kitchen hints are among the treasures of numberless households in North America.

A man's viewpoint.

The man writes in domestic fashion, with a businesslike and fair argument, and it is not surprising that a man to consider an instance of domestic life that had already been noticed, he continues:

"My sympathies certainly go out to 'poor John,' who must for a long while live on what he can get, while his wife practices and wastes his money, learning to do what she certainly should have known how to do before she ever took upon herself the responsibility of doing it."

"What would she think if John should tell her that she would have to wait a long time before he could support her, but that he was trying to learn? Is it strange that so many men remain unmarried, when we need such confessions from the newly married women?"

"It seems to me that a woman has no right to assume the care of a home in which blind, irremediable ignorance of her duties than the man has. On Sunday afternoon I was in a company where there were five women. Not one of them was over twenty."

The subject of cooking came up, and the whole lot of these confessions that they could neither make a loaf of bread nor roast a chicken, and that they were wiser if not a happier under twenty."

The shrewd reasoning and the good sound sense of Marion Harland's correspondence comes prominently to the consideration of people in general, who do not know how to cook, or who do not know how to administer their own homes.

A HINT FOR TRAVELERS.

Travelling from Edmonton to Vancouver recently in a sleeping car, a woman had occasion to write a telegram. Owing to the jolting of the train she was having a pretty time to do it, when the porter, seeing her trouble, went away and came back with a cushion.

"Write on this, lady," he said, "and I will hold it for you. No one else will touch it. How rough we may be going, you'll find that writing with your pen on a cushion in your lap will always leave the jar off. That's a trick we learn in this business."

The woman took the cushion, and in a few minutes she had written the telegram. The porter was right. The violent shaking of the car was almost entirely overcome, and the writing was legible and smooth.

SOCIAL.

Mr. Thomas Tall, son of Sir Malcolm Tall, of Montreal, is now on his way home to Montreal from Australia for an extended holiday.

Dr. Hsieh, who has purchased the pretty residence on Fourth street now occupied by Mr. J. H. Morris. Mrs. Hsieh will reside in her new home on the first Monday in August.

Mrs. A. Williamson Taylor, who has been in the hospital in Victoria, returned home on Saturday night.

PURE-BRED BULL SALE.

Average Price was $76.88—Early Date of Sale Made Average Sale.

The annual Live Stock Association's show for 1907 closed on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, when Auctioneer S. W. Patterson sold the animals entered. Generally speaking, the events were more successful than were anticipated by the general public. It was heard that the date of the event was chosen for the first week in April, would be too early for successful results. The first week in April, would be too early for successful results. The first week in April, would be too early for successful results.

The actual number of bulls sold by auction were 180; the number of animals sold of each breed were as follows:

Short-horns ..... 120
Herefords ..... 40
Aberdeen Angus ..... 40
Galloways ..... 40
The average price realized was $76.78.

The average prices received for the six years previous were as follows:

Year.	No.	Average Price.
1901	64	$65.17
1902	80	$66.00
1903	96	$66.00
1904	112	$66.00
1905	128	$66.00
1906	144	$66.00

The highest prices realized at each sale by individual animals were as follows: 1901, $100; 1902, $100; 1903, $100; 1904, $100; 1905, $100; 1906, $100.

Considering the fact that the breeders are disposing of their animals at much earlier dates than usual, and have transferred the expense of feeding the animals for this term from the seller to the buyer, and that the past winter has been the most successful for the season or twenty years, this year's average is considered a very satisfactory one. In fact, few of the breeders expected that prices would range as high.

Paul B. Brett, of Regina, Sask., purchased the championship short-horn bull for $170.

The Sixth Annual Spring Show.

The Horse Show was undoubtedly the greatest success of any show ever held by the Alberta Horse Breeders' Association. There were 100 entries, this is an increase of 40 over 100 previous years. The half of these entries were Clydes, the balance were Shires, Percherons, Belgians, Hackneys, Thoroughbreds, Standardbreds riding and driving horses.

SPORTING NEWS

BATTLEFORD'S GREAT RECORD.

The North Battleford hockey team has put away their rivals for the season after the greatest team in the history of the sport in that town.

All told this season played fifteen games at home and abroad during the year and were victorious in every one of them—taking three from Edmonton and two from Battleford among the best.

Next year will likely see the same players in the Battleford colors, as the game was won from the financial standpoint as well as from the honor and glory point of view. The premier league, Battleford left on Saturday for Chicago, and will return in three weeks with his wife and mother, having secured a permanent position in Chicago.

North Battleford ladies, however, did not uphold the town's hockey reputation nearly so successfully as the male aggregation. In the inter-town championship games with Battleford they were decidedly outclassed. They lost at home 8-0 and away from home 9-0. In the last game it is said they had the assistance of Battleford's two best skated puck chasers. Dr. McTavish presented a handsome medal to each member of the winning team.

THE NEGROBATH NOLDS.

All Bantam's Bantam Club meeting this week will be held tonight at the school-house at 8 o'clock. This football is the favorite sport among the bulk of the members so far enrolled. The club does not intend to devote all its energies to this pastime.

Teams will later on be taken up and if sufficient members are secured in all the other out-door forms of athletics will be taken up.

In the winter season gymnasium work will receive attention and all the necessary equipment purchased. An instructor for this department has already been secured in the person of R. T. Dykes who has had a great deal of experience in this line.

FOOTBALL.

The schedule of games for the spring season in the city league will be published in a few days.

The clubs in the city league have been notified that they must send the names of their playing members to the league secretary by the first of May. Names added after that time must reach the secretary at least ten days before the players may participate in league games.

Edmonton city club request a full turnout of members at the meeting at the Young Liberal clubrooms on Wednesday night. Among the business to come before the meeting is the question of securing grounds for practice ## and matches this year.

Strathcona is dead to the athletic world at present. With no school down to pick from there should be no recruits for a great football club, but the veterans did not wake up in time to get in the city league. With only four clubs in a city of 125,000 it is almost a high class football in the city league.

The city league clubs will likely get better and more grounds on which to play during the week, and the same field will also be used for the scheduled games.

BASEBALL.

The most league games opened a week from Saturday.

Toronto has only signed one experienced catcher. Two very minor league recruits will be given a trial.

Vancouver has two pitchers who are over six feet and, according to the province, have a reach and delivery corresponding with their height. Winnipeg will have twelve weeks of baseball during the 1919 season. Calumet, Houghton and Duluth each appear three times and remain for six games each visit.

Cleveland city council has provided sixty acres of ground for the playing of baseball games by the boys and young men of the city. The anyone heard of such a move in Edmonton?

Battleford has signed twenty players and Manager Dugdale announces the team is now complete. He has five pitchers on the list and three catchers.

The schedule in the Copper Country league will be announced today. The original plan was to schedule to Winnipeg and Duluth but President Glass has to make it to the Copper Country club for final approval.

Manager Griffith of the New York Americans has refused positively to permit cigarette smoking by the players. He has informed his men that they can smoke their pipes or cigars, but cigarettes are forever taboo.

Edmonton's intermediate baseball team will tonight at the Alberta hotel tonight for the purpose of training. The team is made up of all intermediate players in the city anxious to catch a place on a fast team are requested to attend. Meeting starts at 8 o'clock sharp.

Minneapolis has picked up another of the 1900 Maroon crack pitchers, who was a quiet game for last fall and went school-teacher but the spring weather has been too much for him. Only three of last year's spring team will report with Toronto this year.

Up to Friday thirty teams have been organized for the 1919 season. The Canadian Pacific Irrigation and the Leithbridge real estate exchange season after the greatest year in the All told the team played fifteen

RACES AT WETASKIWIN.

Wetaskiwin, April 8.—All a meeting of the citizens this evening preliminary arrangements were made for two days of sport to be held here on June 12 and 13, the big feature of which will be a series of horse races for which good horses will be offered as follows:

First Day.
Semi-class pace or trot.....$100.00
2:17 class pace or trot.....$25.00
2:4 mile dash.....$25.00
1:4 mile dash.....$25.00

Second Day.
2:35 min. class pace or trot.....$175.00
Free-for-all class pace or trot.....$75.00
One mile dash.....$25.00
2:3 mile dash.....$25.00

This arrangement will bring into Wetaskiwin the fastest horses in Western Canada, and with several events for local horses, should provide a racing attraction that will bring a record crowd to the city.

The committees are actively engaged in making the necessary arrangements and with the excellent man who is taking an interest in the project the coming meet will be without doubt the most successful and enjoyable ever held in Northern Alberta.

HANLAN DONATES HIS TROPHIES.

Toronto, April 8.—Ned Hanlan, ex-champion sculler of the world, proposes to dispose of his famous trophies in an effort to encourage good sport. The Hamilton club trophy, won in 1877 for the championship of Burlington bay, he proposes handing over to the Hamilton club for a perpetual trophy for the championship of the bay.

The trophy valued at $1000, won in England, is to be perpetual trophy for the night.

A painting valued at $5000, presented to him by English admirers when he won the championship of the world, will be given to the city, and in the city hall.

These last two donations are conditional upon his children assenting.

BOWLING BAD FOR BALL PLAYERS.

Manager Donovan, of the Brooklyn, has notified his players that they cannot indulge further in bowling. He says that bowling tends to develop undeveloped pitchers and throws out of little use to a ball club. Donovan asserts that ball players who shine during the winter months as crack knuckle men usually the slowest to get their arms in shape in the spring. Brooklyn players who have been raising the winter playing regularly since last fall are all complaining of a stiffness in their arms.

It is possible that other managers will follow Donovan's example.

GREAT BOWLING.

Mr. F. Thurston won the bowling prize on the Pender street alleys for March for securing the highest number of games over 300 points. He got 27 games above the 300 mark to his credit, easily leading Vincent, the second man, who had 13 games to his credit. The highest score for the month was made by Dr. J. E. Duff.

GOOD ADVICE TO STOCKMEN

Open Deer Policy for Alberta—Dettie Should Be Better Financed.

A large and enthusiastic meeting of the stockmen of Alberta was held Thursday night in the Alexander Hall, Calgary. The meeting was presided over by Hon. W. T. Finlay, minister of agriculture, and addressed by Dr. Rutherford. The meeting was a most successful gathering, and was attended by crowds of stockmen in the city during the first stock show.

Mr. Finlay, in his opening remarks, compared this year's exhibition and show with those of former years, and said that in his opinion the present showing did not suffer at all by the comparison. Considering the fact that this spring the show was more than a month earlier than the previous ones, the prices were good. The farmers' judging school was a very successful, if somewhat expensive experiment. He was strongly of the opinion that the stock show should be open only to Alberta breeders.

Dr. Rutherford, the Dominion Veterinary Director General, pointed to the treatment accorded to Alaskan farmers by the government. The money being spent in the enclosure and fostering of the ranching industry was entirely new. In 1900, but since then it had been increased to about half a million dollars as the season demanded.

The Closed Deer Policy.

Although the government is doing the best, the same cannot, unfortunately be said of the rancher himself. By shutting out the ranchers and breeders of other provinces, the Alaskan breeder is doing himself an injury. The importation of good bulls from the east and west is essential in the improvement of local stock, and this, Dr. Rutherford said, is badly needed. He pointed out that the breeders of the United States, by unqualified expenditure and importation, were exporting cattle far better than the Canadian cattle. This is particularly true of the west, where the Canadian breeder will not pay the price asked for good animals. They would find it a paying proposition to pay a good price and get the choice animals.

Another thing that is keeping the Canadian animals down in the market is the fact that the European market is not open to the Canadian cattle. This is particularly true of the west, where the Canadian breeder will not pay the price asked for good animals. They would find it a paying proposition to pay a good price and get the choice animals.

Government Will Experiment.

It is the intention of the Department of Agriculture to experiment with the possibility of preparing Canadian cattle for European markets.

A. W. Smith, president of the Dominion Shorthorn Association, said that although the cattle selected were very good, the food, or perhaps the lack of it, and the climatic conditions, had the effect of making the bulls too small. The cattle should also be marketed earlier than the present time, as the best is then in the best condition.

Mr. Gardhouse, judge of heavy horses, of Ontario, said that the Chippewas, Perthshire and Shires in the local show are as good as any he had ever seen.

Mr. Lindsay, president of the Saskatchewan Stock Breeders' association, who was the first speaker, said that many of the bulls in the sale had not been selected during the winter, and that consequently some were not as sound as they might have been. He also thought that more attention should be paid to the selection of bulls to head the bands. These should be strong, hardy animals, capable of withstanding any hardships which they might have to undergo. Often, he had noticed, animals that were not physically able were chosen, and the result was generally the loss of that animal. Mr. Lindsay's speech was well received by the audience.

The Scheme of Immigration.

Adjutant Wakefield, of the Salvation Army, in a well chosen speech, outlined the Army's assisted immigration scheme, which has caused much discussion lately. The Salvation Army Mr. Wakefield pointed out, had absolutely no desire to bring undesirable emigrants to Canada. They fully realize that they would not benefit the country in the least, and could only make their own work more difficult. Only men of good standing in their communities at home would be selected here, and that they would be prepared to work hard, and carry out their own course. The Salvation Army has, among the 20,000 people whom they have brought here, only been found to export nineteen. With this statement, and amid loud applause, Mr. Wakefield resumed his seat.

New York, April 8.—On reports of a rise in the southwest, more bullish foreign news, wheat acted weaker today, losing nearly a cent under liquidation. The final price showed 54 cent net loss.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL*Associated Press Despatch.

New York, April 8.—There was a material expansion of the volume of trading in today's rising stock market over yesterday. The market still preserved its professional appearance, however, and the movement was regarded rather as a readjustment of the price level to the changed money conditions than as a response to any actual large absorption of securities. The movement of the international exchange is significant of the conditions in which the quarterly settlements concluded and the expected relaxation in Europe and New York money market discloses that it is without urgent necessity to draw on these abroad. London has removed the obstacles to an outflow of gold, the price of the metal declining a sharp fall in the open market.

Discount rate opening the way for New York to secure gold, if it is desired. The rapid fall in our own money rate meanwhile has run up the sterling rate to where the import of gold offers no profit. The relief measures adopted by the Treasury in the past in avoiding the expected April first crisis. Yesterday's Imperial Bank of Germany's statement and today's Bank of France statement are sufficient evidence of the stress of the situation. The collapse of the money rate clears up one of the darkest clouds on the financial horizon and is of vast sentimental influence in dispersing the deep depression hanging over securities.

NOTES.

Southern Pacific strong showing of net earnings for February helped that stock and union Pacific as well and this was sympathetic on effect.

A rebound in the London copper market was a favorable incident of the day. The late market showed the unusual effect of profit taking on so considerable a day's rise but the gains were quite well maintained.

CATTLE.

Chicago, April 8.—There was considerable selling pressure in evidence in this pit in the early trading and prices worked up under the buying power was very pronounced at the lower levels and a rally to within 1/4 c. of the previous close was recorded in the May option. The more distant months were relatively stronger. There was not as large an export of cash demand was good and damage reports continue to make their pressure felt. Our belief is that oats will be much higher has been greatly strengthened.
